To Round Up Slacker.

Law officers of the State are to begin at once a drive to round up all the slackers.

Every man must have on his person at all times his classification card. Registrants will be asked to show their cards at any moment.

The man who has registered and who has his card on his person will present it when the officers ask for it, and he will be glad to do so as a means of aiding the officer's in locating those who are attempting to dodge service. The slacker will be caught and the man who has registered will not be inconvenienced. Yet he must have his card, so that the officer may not be hampered in their work of rounding up the slackers.

If a registrant has by any accident lost his card it is his duty to at once apply to his local board for a statement to the effect that he has been classified. Duplicate cards can not be issued but a statement from the Board, duly signed and authenticated, will be sufficient to protect registrants whose cards have been lost.

The drive against the slackers is to be begun at once in all counties, towns and cities in Tennessee, and you may expect at any time to be called upon to show your card. Have it ready at all times, and avoid probable arrest. In event a man is unable to present his card he will be arrested and taken to jail, where he will be held for government authorities.

The man who has a classification card in his pocket is proud of having it, and will not hesitate to present it when called upon by the officer. There need be no surprise at being asked for your card several times a day, for the fact that one officer has seen the registrant's card is no indication that all know he is properly registered. So when called on for your card, no matter how frequently this demand may be made, hand it out cheerfully, and help the officers to find the men for whom they are searching—the slackers. They do not want you if you have your credentials; they simply want to know who has such credentials.

The slacker's day of grace is nearing its end. He will have to do service for his country, as well as be singled out as a man willing to dodge his duty when other young men are freely offering their lives in the cause.

Major Smith is determined that no slacker shall escape, and officers of the law are equally determined to round up such people.

Bear in mind that loss of a card can be easily remedied by securing a statement from your board.

Bybee-Sanders.

On Wednesday, July 17, the marriage of this popular couple took place and was an event of marked interest to a host of friends. The ceremony, which was at the home of the bride in Smithville, was a beautiful one, though planned along quiet lines. Only the relatives and a few of the special friends of the couple attended, Rev. Robert Whitlock of the Smithville Baptist church was the officiating minister. Previous to her marriage Mrs. Bybee was Miss Bessie Lee Sanders, a young woman of many attractions. For her wedding she was gowned in blue georgette crepe and the costume in which she was very lovely, was finished with a picture hat. She is popularly known in her home community and elsewhere. She won a life diploma from the Central State Normal at Edmond, Okla., which is accepted in thirty-six states and was instructor for several years in some of the principal schools in Edmond. She is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. F. P. Sanders. Mr. Sanders is the proprietor of the New Standard Nursery and is well known in Middle Tennessee. Mr. Bybee is a member of the firm of Harris Bybee & Co., one of the leading merchants of Gainesboro R-2. After their return, August 1, from an Eastern bridal tour Mr. and Mrs. Bybee will make their home in Meagsville. The bride is a niece of Mr. and Mrs. N. B. Tittsworth of Nashville and is well known by many Nashville friends. The couple was remembered by a large collection of wedding presents that was an evidence of their popularity.

Lawn Party.

Attractive invitations were recently issued by Miss Aline McDearman to about fifty of the younger set to attend the lawn party at her home, "House of Seven Gables" Saturday evening, July 27th.

The affair was to compliment her cousins Misses Emma, Jessie and Beulah Lee Tinsley, of Galatin.

Out of town guests were Miss Dennie, Miss Richmond, Miss McGlasson, of Cookeville, and Mr. Gore, of Livingston.

Ferns and potted plants were arranged in the house, while the porch and lawn with patriotically colored garlands and artistically lighted with Japanese lanterns.

One of the most interesting features of the evening was "Miss Gilmore," who with her naive manner created great excitement. After causing much confusion and embarrassment among the young men (some being very anxious to entertain her) She proved to be no less personage than Mr. Sterling McDearman.

After this excitement had subsided a very interesting flag contest of educational value was enjoyed. The prize being awarded to Miss Miriam Quarles.

Unusual method of choosing partners was by means of baby pictures brought by the girls, which were drawn by the young men.

All enjoyed the Ouija board, which told them of their past, present and future life.

Piano and Victrola furnished music throughout the evening.

Delightful refreshments were served in the dining room at a late hour. Color scheme being pink and white.

Warren Lynn passed thru town Saturday enroute home from Nashville, where he had been to have his foot amputated. Mr. Lynn's foot was badly cut in a saw mill several days ago, and was taken off about 6 inches above the ankle joint. The wound is healing nicely.

Jackson County High School will open, Monday, Aug. 5.

Children's Day.

Lightening Strikes Barn.

Last Thursday night between 8 and 9 o'clock the barn belonging to Jesse Young, who lives on the waters of Talley's Hollow, about 3 miles south of town, was destroyed by lightning. The barn contained about 500 binds fodder, 450 binds oats, new pea huller, harrow and several other farming implements. It was a good sized barn and practically new. Loss estimated at $750, with $225 insurance.

Government Wants Nurses.

Our Government has issued a call for student nurses. Tennessee's quota is fixed at 500. The campaign opened last Monday and will close some time in August. Those who care to register for this work can get the desired information from Mrs. L. B. Anderson, Gainesboro. All who register must be between the ages of 18 and 26 years. Full particulars of how and where to register will appear in next weeks paper. This will be a fine opportunity for the Jackson county girls who are longing to do service for Uncle Sam.

Chattanooga Woman Says
Vin Hepatica Saved Her Life.

Had Taken Medicine From Five Different Doctors Without Relief From Stomach and Nervous Trouble of Eight Years' Standing.

"May God's greatest blessings be with you for what Vin Hepatica has done for me," writes Mrs. Ida V. Marlar, of 206 Elinor St., West Chattanooga, Tenn.

"It has saved my life. I had suffered from stomach trouble and nervousness for eight years, and had tried treatment of five of the best doctors without doing me any good. I was so poor and weak I could hardly go; my neighbors thought I had consumption. Could hardly sleep, was so nervous.

"But now, after taking the great Vin Hepatica prescription,

I sleep soundly all night, and can truthfully say that I feel better than I have felt in eight years. I am fleshier and stronger and can eat anything. I hope everyone who has stomach trouble or nervousness will try Vin Hepatica. We don't know how to appreciate good health until we are nearly dead, and then get well. I am well and happy, and owe it all to Vin Hepatica."

Come in and get a bottle of this wonderful nature prescription, and try it on our recommendation.—L. B. Anderson, Gainesboro, Tenn.
